Experts share views on Intrusion Detection with Velammal Engg grads

Chennai, Feb 24: Faculty Development Programme on "Intrusion Detection using Data Mining" started with welcome address by Dr. M. Ramakrishnan, HOD, Department of Information Technology. The presidential address was given by Dr. R.S. Kumar, Principal, VEC.

The Guest of Honor, Dr.Kumar SrinivasRatna, Lead Consultant, CSC, enlightened the participants who has came from various Engineering Colleges and Companies with his valuable speech. In his speech he has highlighted the latest threats in web applications and accelerated the young minds to take support from corporate organizations like Mc Café to bring out innovative ideas to counter act these threats and attacks. He also mentioned about the SQL Injection. It was a mind blowing speech which gathered a momentum and ended with a huge applause from the participants and the audience.

The sessions were headed by Dr. Bose and Dr. Baskaran, Assistant Professors, CSE Dept, Anna University, Chennai, who showered their knowledge to the participants.

Valedictory function commenced with a welcome address by Mr. P. Julian, Assistant Professor., and gathering was addressed by Prof. Mrs. B. Rajalakshmi, Vice Principal – Academics. Ms. J.Sathya Priya, Convener, thanked each and every people who supported her for making this programme a grand success.

The Programme was Co-ordinated by Ms. J.Sathya Priya and Ms. A.R.Sathyabama, Assistant Professors of IT Department.

Velammal Engineering College is giving the young minds a lot of exposure to Industry people and Experts from Anna University. Hats off to the College for giving a continued support to their Students and Staff.